

PROFESSIONAL REFERRAL FIT GUIDE

Who is a good fit for Kenneth Doll?

A practical guide for accountants who want a trusted fee-only planning resource for clients with complex retirement, corporate, estate, and tax-sensitive financial questions.

Kenneth Doll

BA, B.Comm., MA, CFP, CLU, TEP, ICD.D | Independent fee-only financial planner

NO PRODUCT SALES

TRANSPARENT FEES

BEST FIT

Clients with meaningful financial complexity who want objective advice.

Ken is especially well suited for clients who need coordinated planning across retirement income, tax efficiency, estate planning, corporate assets, insurance review, and family wealth transfer.

CLIENT PROFILE	PLANNING NEED
Near or recent retirees	Withdrawal sequencing, taxable income, CPP/OAS timing, OAS clawbacks, pension income, and sustainable spending.
Incorporated professionals	Salary, dividends, retained earnings, corporate investments, personal retirement income, and long-term tax strategy.
Business owners	Succession, corporate wind-down, retained earnings withdrawal, shareholder agreements, and transition to retirement income.
High-net-worth families	Estate equalization, trusts, gifting, capital gains exposure, blended family issues, and family harmony.
Farmers and ranchers	Land, succession, capital gains, operating assets, retirement income, and equalization among children.
DIY investors	Professional third-party planning, retirement projections, tax-aware withdrawal strategy, and estate review.

When to refer, and how collaboration works.

Use these triggers when a client needs planning strategy beyond tax preparation or product recommendations.

— COMMON SITUATIONS

- A client asks if they can afford to retire.
- A client is unsure how to draw from registered, non-registered, or corporate assets.
- A client wants help timing CPP or OAS.
- A client has retained earnings and no clear withdrawal plan.
- A client needs estate equalization among children.

— MAY NOT BE A FIT

- Clients looking only for investment management.
- Clients with very simple finances and no current planning need.
- Clients who primarily need tax return preparation.
- Clients who primarily need legal drafting.
- Clients seeking a product recommendation without a broader plan.

— ACCOUNTANT COLLABORATION

Supporting the client while respecting your relationship.

Ken helps the client clarify the planning strategy, model decisions, and identify tax-sensitive tradeoffs. The accountant remains the client's tax preparation and tax compliance professional.

Where coordination can help

- Retirement income targets
- RRSP/RRIF withdrawal strategy
- CPP and OAS timing
- Salary and dividend planning
- Corporate withdrawals
- Taxable income smoothing
- Capital gains planning
- Estate and beneficiary considerations

A clear engagement from intro call to ongoing review.

Clients receive a comprehensive planning process, transparent fees, and a practical referral introduction.

— HOW CLIENTS WORK WITH KEN

STEP 01 Intro call Discuss the client's situation, goals, complexity, and whether planning support is a fit.	STEP 02 Gather details Income, assets, liabilities, pensions, insurance, tax details, corporate information, family context, and estate goals.	STEP 03 Build plan A roadmap across retirement income, tax, investments, risk, estate, corporate planning, and wealth transfer.	STEP 04 Prioritize Clear recommendations and a practical action list explained in plain language.	STEP 05 Review Ongoing retainer support, annual reviews, and year-round access when appropriate.
--	--	---	---	--

— FEE POSITIONING

Transparent, disclosed-up-front fees.

Fees are discussed and agreed upon before the engagement begins. Current website examples include:

SINGLE PERSON $3,250 YEAR-ONE TOTAL	COUPLE $4,500 YEAR-ONE TOTAL	INCORPORATED PROFESSIONALS $5,500 YEAR-ONE TOTAL
---	--	--

Fees do not include GST and should be confirmed before use in final marketing material. Plan-only options are also listed on the website.

— SUGGESTED REFERRAL NOTE

I wanted to introduce you to Kenneth Doll, an independent fee-only financial planner. Ken helps clients with retirement income, tax-sensitive withdrawal planning, corporate planning, estate considerations, and broader financial roadmaps. He does not sell investment products or charge based on assets under management, which is why I thought he could be a good fit for this question.

Kenneth Doll | Independent fee-only financial planner

This guide is for professional referral context only. Financial planning recommendations depend on each client's full circumstances. Results vary by client.

[email placeholder]
[booking link placeholder]